

“Disconnected”

“Welcome to the first ever amateur production of ‘Disconnected’, an exploration of island and urban values. (How many of us have been tempted to tease our own lovely Exmoor visitors?) The slow pace of events mimics island life, which is not quite as moronic as it might appear.

Set on a small island called St Peters in the West Country one telecoms engineer comes to disconnect the red telephone box. He arrives at his B&B, above the island's Off-Licence, and soon discovers than island life works a little differently to life on the mainland. With a boat to catch and a job sheet to complete, will time and tide wait for Norman? Or like the island will he end up disconnected?

The Players particularly welcome Claire Govier, one of our great Calendar Girls, as a first time director and Ryun Smallbone, who leaps from one role in pantomime into the leading role.”

Forthcoming events:

September 13th brings another Murder Mystery, this one penned by Charlie Blanning – tonight’s Uncle Joe.

In November 5th – 8th we are producing ‘Oh What a Lovely War’, directed by Sara Hooley. We would like to see lots of new faces in this show, as we did 40 years ago, the last time we did it. AUDITION DATE: SUNDAY 13TH JULY at the Town Hall. Please help spread the word. Interested give Sara a call 01643 851500.

Watch out for news of the next workshops for children and young people and adults.”

Cast

Joe	Charlie Blanning
Norman	Ryun Smallbone
Jerry	Simon Bartlett
Susannah	Suzy Wall
Marianne	Gwenda Bassett
Director	Claire Govier

The Crew

Stage Mgr	Christine Dubery	Assistant Mgr	Louise Parrish
Lighting	Steve Hall
Sound	Simon William and Mark Wright
Props	Debbie Passmore	Prompt	Debbie Wright
Costumes	Jean Verrall	Make- up	Claire Govier

Set Building Team: - Simon Williams, Jean Verrall, Cynthia Sharpe, Louise Parrish, Christine Dubery, Claire Savill and Brian Boundy, Johnathan Willams, Vicky Norman.

Front of House and Bar: - Sara Hooley, Marion Silverlock, Heather Hodgson, Debra Bean, Paddy King-Fretts , Ann and Kate Ansell, Alan and Alison Ferris, Claire Savill, Brian Boundy, Nick and Sylvia Thwaites and Rod and Olga Owen.

Our thanks must also go to The Lion Hotel and Woods Bar and Restaurant and M and H Fruit and Veg.